

connectivity services

Business Broadband

Business Broadband is a new generation, wireless broadband solution specifically catering for the primary connectivity needs of the small to medium sized business.

This service uses microwave technology and offers a symmetrical service with speeds of up to 20Mbps on a single access medium. Business Broadband provides a high-quality, end-to-end managed connection suitable for business applications but without the high prices associated with similar connectivity solutions.

Typology Diagram

Features

- Wireless alternative to ADSL and bonded ADSL
- Packages available in 30, 60 & 100GB caps
- Includes up to 5 Static IP addresses
- Symmetrical offering with equal upload and download speeds
- Remote management and monitoring tools
- Includes router
- Bundled solution which includes internet access and a data package

Benefits

- No fixed lines required
- Suitable for voice and internet traffic
- Immune to copper theft
- Quick, professional installation

arctelecoms connect. communicate. create.